

Joan Madsen

Joan has actively volunteered in the Pasadena and Altadena communities since her arrival in California. As a member of the Pasadena Showcase House of Design, Joan coordinated all community volunteer as well as Showcase member staffing for the Showcase House. She served on the board of The Wellness Community, and as a member of the San Marino Auxiliary of Five Acres. As a member of that organization she co-chaired a major fundraiser for Five Acres, which raised more than $100,000.00.

Joan currently serves as a member of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, the Assistance League and Altadena Guild, which provides support to Huntington Memorial Research Institute.

Joan Madsen's involvement in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses is very extensive. She has served in numerous leadership positions in that organization. She was an at-large member of the Executive Committee for two years and spent four years on the Tournament Foundation Board. She served on numerous Ad Hoc committees including Budget and Finance, Government and Community Relations and Governance. She currently serves on the Government And Public Affairs Committee. She served as Vice Chairman of two and Chairman of ten operating committees.

Joan spent many years in the financial services industry. She recently retired as a Vice President from Bank of America in order to pursue her passion for corporate philanthropic ventures. While in the bank she was a member of the African-American Leadership Team and the San Gabriel Valley Leadership Team. She also served as Co-Chair of the Host Committee for the National NAACP 102nd Convention.
