

2020 EQUESTRIAN UNITS:

1st Cavalry Division Horse Cavalry Detachment

The Horse Cavalry Detachment supports the 1st Cavalry Division and Fort Hood by participating in ceremonies and other events, supporting the U.S. Army in its public relations and recruiting efforts, and preserving and maintaining the standards of drill and traditions of the U.S. Cavalry during the 1800's.

Arabian Horse Association

The Arabian Horse Association is the single national organization that is the only breed registry that registers Arabian horses in the United States. They will be partnering with the Warrior Horses for Warrior Kids in the 2020 Rose Parade® presented by Honda.

Blue Shadows Mounted Drill Team

Blue Shadows Mounted Drill Team is a non-profit equestrian organization dedicated to teaching youth in Southern California how to ride horses while learning teamwork skills and responsibility. For over 60 years, they have worked to instill the qualities of horsemanship, teamwork and dedication within their members.

Budweiser Clydesdales

The Budweiser Clydesdales have been the symbol of Anheuser-Busch for more than 75 years. Traveling thousands of miles each year, the Clydesdales have made hundreds of appearances throughout North America, and occasionally overseas, to meet millions of cheering crowds and happy faces.

Buffalo Soldiers Mounted Cavalry Unit (BSMCU)

Buffalo Soldiers Mounted Cavalry Unit (BSMCU) is a group of historical educators dedicated to keeping the legacy of the Buffalo Soldiers alive. Through public speaking events, civic parades, Honor Guard detail, and library/museum exhibits, these Troopers and Women of the West tell the Buffalo Soldiers story of black soldiers and women who helped settle the frontier after the conclusion of the Civil War.

Express Clydesdales

Bob Funk founded the Express Clydesdales twenty years ago with a love and passion for the draft horse breed. Wanting to spotlight these horses on a national level, his horses march in the parade as part of their efforts to raise money for the Children's Miracle Network.

Horsewomen of Temecula Wine Country (Temecula Eq-Wine Riders)

Aligned with Temecula Valley Rural Lifestyles, a non-profit local organization, the Horsewomen of Temecula Wine Country strives to represent the men and women living within their community in order to unite efforts to preserve their region's Rural Heritage.

Knott's Berry Farm

In 2020, Knott's Berry Farm will be celebrating its 100-year anniversary as California's original theme park. Knott's will be bringing its renowned stagecoach, historic surrey wagon, and a cast of characters including Snoopy and Charlie Brown, along with a few other members of the Peanuts Gang.

Los Hermanos Banuelos

Los Hermanos Banuelos began on the rodeo circuit and continue to tour, performing rope and horse tricks, dancing and prancing steeds, and spinning lassos. The group performs at competitions, schools and fundraisers. During their shows, they don matching custom-made outfits proudly displaying their culture.

Mid America Cowgirls Rodeo Drill Team

The Mid America Cowgirls Rodeo Drill Team is an all-women equestrian team representing Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois. When they aren't marching in parades, they are touring and performing in rodeos.

Mini Therapy Horses

Mini Therapy Horses are a group of highly trained miniature horses that provide comfort, joy and hope to children and adults throughout Southern California. The horses provide a special interaction that can be healing and have a multitude of positive benefits.

Painted Ladies Rodeo Performers

Painted Ladies Rodeo Drill Team was established in 1993. In 2003 they renamed the team to PAINTED LADIES RODEO PERFORMERS and are more than just an ordinary drill team. They have been the number one equestrian attraction at the Folsom Pro-Rodeo for 23 years and call home.

Rural Media Group

To showcase the sport of rodeo, and to support the "Rodeo New York- Walk. Ride. Rodeo." float in the 2020 Rose Parade with the American Quarter Horse, The Gold Buckle Battalion unites world champions and Gold Buckle earners from the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Finals.

Scripps Miramar Ranch

This year, Scripps Miramar Ranch will depict the inspiring legend of King Arthur and the prosperity and hope associated with his Knights of the Round Table and court at Camelot. Their American Saddlebred Pintos have been revered for their unusual coats and their alert, expressive faces, arched necks, proud bearing and showy, animated trot, are the very epitome of royalty.

Spirit of the West Riders

Riding on behalf of the John Wayne Cancer Foundation, the Spirit of the West Riders have appeared in Wild West shows, cable television documentaries and feature motion pictures, and have an entertainment value that has been showcased in past Tournament of Roses Equestfest programs.

USMC Mounted Color Guard

As the last remaining Mounted Color Guard in the Marine Corps, the Mounted Color Guard undergo hours of training with a civilian horse trainer and learn how to handle the day-to-day operations of a ranch. Members will ride down the parade route on wild mustangs that have been adopted from the Bureau of Land Management's Adopt a Burro Program.

The Valley Hunt Club

The Valley Hunt Club planned the first Rose Parade in 1890 and has participated since its inception. The membership works hard to present a beautifully decorated, authentic period carriage as a reminder to Pasadena of the shared heritage and ongoing dedication to the Rose Parade.