

2020 Marching Bands

Aguiluchos Marching Band

Puebla, Mexico

Making their third appearance in the Rose Parade, this colorful group is known for being the first marching band of its kind in Mexico, serving as the example for subsequent marching bands in the country. The group is led by an alumni member of the Aguiluchos Marching Band.

Alhambra Unified School District Marching Band

Alhambra, California

Three high schools representing Alhambra, Monterey Park, and San Gabriel, come together to form one band. 2020 Tournament of Roses President Laura Farber is a graduate of Alhambra High School.

Baldwinsville Marching Bees

Baldwinsville, New York

First time band in the Rose Parade and first band representing the state of New York since 2003. They have performed at the Buffalo Bills halftime shows, Syracuse Orangemen basketball games, and have accepted an invitation to perform in the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Dublin, Ireland.

Banda El Salvador: Grande Como Su Gente

El Salvador

Making their second appearance in the Rose Parade. The local El Salvadorian population is the largest outside of El Salvador. Originated as an effective form of crime prevention by providing their students with exposure to the arts.

Banda Municipal de Zarcero

Alajuela, Costa Rica

The band is making their first appearance in the Rose Parade and is known for being the first band from Costa Rica to perform in Europe. This colorful group consists of band members and traditional dancers.

Centenaria Banda Colegial - University of Puerto Rico

Mayagüez, Puerto Rico

The island is still rebuilding from Hurricanes Irma and Maria, but this will be Puerto Rico's second year in a row with a band in the Rose Parade. This is the band's first appearance in the parade and they are the only school band in the parade that has been in existence for over 100 years.

Dobyns-Bennett High SchoolKingsport, Tennessee

The band encompasses the largest band program in Tennessee. It is one of only 14 band programs in the country to receive both the John Philip Sousa Foundation's prestigious Sudler Flag of Honor and the Sudler Shield award.

Greendale High School Marching BandGreendale, Wisconsin

The band will be making their first trip down Colorado Boulevard. Greendale High School is a fourteen-time Wisconsin State Champion and a recipient of the John Philip Sousa Foundation's prestigious Sudler Shield award.

Helsingør PigegardeHornbaek, Denmark

This band from Denmark is the only all-female band to march in the 2020 Rose Parade.

Japan Honor Green BandKyoto, Japan

With approximately 250 members, the 2020 Japan Honor Green Band is anticipated to be the largest of the Japanese bands to perform in the Rose Parade. A majority of the band members are female.

Kamehameha Warrior Marching Band and Color GuardHonolulu, Hawaii

Always colorful, and a crowd favorite, Kamehameha Schools celebrate their culture and share the spirit of Aloha with their grass skirts, hula dancing, and conch shell players.

Los Angeles Unified School District All District Honor BandLos Angeles, California

The band of brass and percussion instruments is marking its 47th appearance in the Rose Parade. The 350-member band encompasses students from over 75 LAUSD high schools. In addition to being accomplished musicians, these students are also active in school leadership, college-preparation programs and community service projects.

The PRIDE of OwassoOwasso, Oklahoma

2020 will be the sixth time Owasso High School will be performing in the Rose Parade and the first time under the direction of Chris Harris. He has conducted the Oklahoma All State Band on four different occasions.

The Pride of Pearland Marching BandPearland, Texas

From the Houston area, this band and their parents quickly went into action during Hurricane Harvey when the school and band hall became a refuge for those who lost their homes. Director Joe Munoz is also the lead instructor at the famous George M. Parks Drum Major Academy.

Pasadena City College Tournament of Roses Honor BandPasadena, California

The band is one of the annual band participants in the Rose Parade and will make their 20th consecutive appearance in 2020.

Rancho Verde Crimson RegimentMoreno Valley, California

Making their first appearance in the Rose Parade, these 275 students represent a community of diverse social and economic backgrounds, including military families.

Southern University “Human Jukebox” Marching BandBaton Rouge, Louisiana

Also known as “The Human Jukebox,” this highly energetic group wows spectators with their dance team known as “The Dancing Dolls” leading the way. They proudly represent Louisiana and are among the world renowned HBCU bands.

Tournament of Roses Salvation Army BandPasadena, California

The band made their 100th march down Colorado Blvd. in the 2019 Rose Parade. For 2020, they will once again have a “band within a band” and have a special guest band join them along the route.

United States Marine Corps West Coast Composite BandSan Diego, California

The group is a combined military band which includes the Marine Band San Diego, the first Marine Division Band, and the 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing Band. The Rose Parade is the only time each year where the bands combine for a performance.

West Harrison Hurricane Band, The Pride of South MississippiGulfport, Mississippi

The band was formed from FEMA grant money after Hurricane Katrina ravaged the Mississippi gulf coast; the school also serves as a FEMA certified hurricane shelter. With a school population of just over 900, there are more than 200 students in the band. Their motto is, “Be a great musician, but be a better person.”