

2022 ROYAL COURT MEMBER

Nadia Chung is a senior at La Cañada High School and lives in La Cañada. She is currently a journalist for the Los Angeles Times in the High School Insider division, Speech and Debate competitor, trainer and organizer for free debate workshops, President of the Mock Trial Team, President of the Mini Mission, President of Concert Choir, singer in Choral Artists, President of Concert Choir, Girl Scout Member, Vice President of MD Junior Chapter, Secretary for the National English Honor Society and member of the 2020 Miss La Cañada Flintridge Royal Court. Nadia enjoys training and performing classical ballet, reading, writing, hiking with her brother and spending time with family and friends. She plans to study political science, government and journalism and aspires to attend law school and become a civil rights attorney while writing articles about social justice. She is interested in attending Georgetown, UC Berkeley or Brown. Nadia is the daughter of Sanah Chung and Sonia Chang and has a brother, Tyler.