What to expect during Rose Court Interviews:

Check-in
We recommend that you complete the online application before arrival, however there will be a limited number of laptops available on-site to apply. Plan to check-in personal items including purses and cell phones. You will be given a claim ticket and all items will be stored in a secure place.

Orientation
Past Rose Court members will share their experiences and explain the step-by-step process for the day. This is also an opportunity to ask questions about the interview process, the Tournament of Roses or the benefits of being on the Rose Court.

Interview
Each applicant will be asked a question and given 15 seconds to answer. The Queen & Court Committee, made of up 10 Tournament of Roses Members, will be asking the questions. The committee is looking for a combination of qualities, including public speaking ability, youth leadership, academic achievement, and community and school involvement.

Next Steps
By Tuesday, September 9, 2025, an email will be sent to all participants of the first round of interviews. The email will notify applicants if they are invited to continue to the next round in the interview process or if round one was the end of their experience.

FAQs

What should I wear?
Wear something that you feel confident and comfortable in. In the past, participants have chosen to wear a dress, skirt and top, or pantsuit.
